MS 10772

RCM

The Society of Women Musicians. Diamond Jubilee Concert, 7th July 1971, in the Queen Elizabeth Hall in the presence of H.R.H.Princess Alexandra

H.R.H. to arrive at 7.40 p.m. at the car users' entrance. To be received there by Mr John Denison, Director of the South Bank Concert Halls, and escorted up to the foyer of the Queen Elizabeth Hall where, in front of the Royal Dedication Plaque, the following will be presented to her:

Marion, Countess of Harewood	President of the S.W.M.
Miss Margaret Paterson	Vice-President and Chairman
Mr Norman Ritchie	Ex-Honorary Treasurer and husband of the Chairman
Miss Muriel Dawson	Honorary Treasurer
Miss Joan Kemp-Potter	Vice-Chairman and Member of the Diamond Jubilee Sub-Committee
Mr William Blezard	Husband of the Vice-Chairman
Miss Marian Attwood	Member of the Diamond Jubilee Sub-Committee
Mr Willem de Mont	Husband of Miss Marian Attwood
Miss Sarah Greenwood	Honorary Secretary.

A bouquet will be presented to H.R.H. by Miss Sara Barrington.

The Royal Party will then move towards the Green Side entrance. (Late-comers will be channelled into the Red Side entrance irrespective of ticket colours).

The Royal Party will take their seats on Rows AA and BB. H.R.H. to sit in the centre of Row AA (Seat 20), with Lady Harewood on her right and Miss Margaret Paterson on her left. The Lady-in-Waiting, escorted by Mr Norman Ritchie, to sit in Row BB (Seat 19) obliquely behind the Princess. Mr S.J.Saunders, Fellow of the S.W.M., will be seated on the left of the Lady-in-Waiting. The Princess's detective to sit in Row EE (Seat 13).
(After the entrance of the Royal Party no late-comers will be admitted until the end of the first work).

Artists for the first work to be on the platform prior to the arrival of the Royal Party, at which point they will rise.
No National Anthem.
The programme will begin as soon as the Princess and the other members of the Royal Party have taken their seats.

Immediately the first half of the programme is over, the Office-bearers of the Women's International Art Club will leave their seats (AA 10-13) and return to the foyer where they will await the Royal Party.

H.R.H., escorted by Lady Harewood, Miss Margaret Paterson, Miss Muriel Dawson and Mr Denison, the Lady-in-Waiting and Mr Norman Ritchie, will return to the foyer by the Green Side entrance. The following will then be presented to the Princess:

Miss Anne Bruce	Chairman of the Women's International Art Club
Mr Patrick Reyntiens	Her husband
Mrs Claire Ritson	Member of the Sub-Committee in charge of the Exhibition
Mrs Barbara Whatmore	Secretary of the W.I.A.C.

H.R.H. to be conducted round the small exhibition of paintings by members of the W.I.A.C. of which the late Princess Marina, Duchess of Kent, was President, two of whose pictures are to be included in the exhibition.

The Royal Party will then proceed to the Purcell Room to join those who have already assembled there for coffee which will be served on stage and/or in the Artists' Room immediately adjoining the stage. (Black coffee without sugar for H.R.H.)

There the following will be presented to H.R.H.:

Miss Nancy Evans	Immediate Past President
Mr Lennox Berkeley	Fellow of the S.W.M.
Mrs Berkeley
Mr Ivor Walsworth	Fellow of the S.W.M.
Miss Audrey Strange	Ex-Honorary Secretary of the S.W.M.
Mrs Margaret Lucy Wilkins	Winner of the Cappiani Prize Competition for Women Composers
Mr Nigel Wilkins	Her husband.

(Stage supervisor to ensure that one dressing-room and lavatory are available for H.R.H. and the Lady-in-Waiting).

The interval will last for 20 minutes in total.

After the interval, the Princess, escorted by Lady Harewood and Mr Denison, will proceed to the front of the auditorium via the back-stage lift entering at the Green Side near the steps on to the stage.
(Staff Supervisor to ensure that the lift is manned).

If she is well enough to come to the concert, Miss Anne Ashton Channon will be in a wheel-chair just on the left of the Princess as she enters the auditorium. Mrs Ashton Channon will be accompanied by her husband, Mr C.S.Davies.

H.R.H. will go up the steps to the platform accompanied by Lady Harewood, who will then ask her to present the Cappiani Prize to Margaret Lucy Wilkins. The prize-winner will go up on to the platform from the Stage Supervisor's room at the Red Side of the stage.

H.R.H. will then be escorted back to her seat by Lady Harewood and Mr Denison via the Red Side gangway in the auditorium. H.R.H. will then have Miss Nancy Evans (Past President) on her right and Miss Muriel Dawson (Honorary Treasurer) on her left.

The second half of the programme will begin as soon as the Royal Party have regained their seats.

(House manager's office to be open and lavatory available if required at the end of the concert).

At the end of the concert, the Royal Party to proceed along the Management Corridor and down in the lift to the Artists' Entrance Reception Foyer where the performers will be presented. (This foyer to be kept clear of all instruments).

Thea King. Daphne Down. Georgina Dobree. Janet Eggleden. Angela Fussell.
Noreen Mason. Patricia Lynden. Deirdre Dundas Grant. Joan Davies.
Oriel Sutherland. Jean Stewart. Dorothea Aspinall. Angela Hickey.
Vera Kantrovitch. Elizabeth Watson. Joanna Milholland. Elinor Bennett.
Nona Liddell. Marilyn Taylor. Marjorie Lempfert. Helen Just. Daphne Ibbott.

H.R.H. will depart from the Artists' Entrance.